JOHN MCGOVERN

Though the name has been changed from the Football League Cup to the Milk Cup, the end product is still the same as when I enjoyed success at Wembley with Nottingham Forest in 1978 and 1979.

Obviously, being still at the First round stage, Wembley is a long way off. But that is no reason not to put everything we can into tonight's game in the hope that progression to round two will improve our confidence in the League games we have to play in the coming weeks.

The beauty of the League Cup — the Milk Cup as it is now of course — is that it is a competition which is completed before the end of the League season.

The winners are assured a place in Europe so they end the season full of themselves. I believe that winning the League Cup in 1978 when we beat Liverpool in the final, was a vital factor in helping us win the League Championship.

I suppose it is a case of success breeding success.

Whatever the theory of it all, the worst thing that can happen to us tonight — particularly after gaining that 3-3 draw at Carlisle in the first leg — would be to lose out in the home leg.

Imagine our feelings if we were knocked out and Carlisle were paired in the next round with Liverpool. We would certainly be kicking ourselves.

It is important that we consolidate the advantage of having already drawn at Carlisle. Progression into the Second round is of the utmost importance — after all it gives us extra games which means additional revenue and I don't need to tell you how vital that can be these days.

I am confident that after such a good start to the season we can approach the game with the right attitude.

These notes were written before Saturday's game at Fulham so I can't comment on that result, but before that we had two terrific games at home to Newcastle and at Sheffield Wednesday last week.

I am sure that if we can play as well as we did in those two games then we can earn ourselves a place in the next round.

The victory over Newcastle rounded off a fine first week of the season. With Kevin Keegan here as the special attraction, it was a match played in a terrific atmosphere in front of a large crowd. How nice it would be to play in front of so many spectators every week.

I would like to thank those of our fans who behaved themselves and were a credit to the club. Unfortunately the afternoon was marred by that minority of mindless idiots who call themselves football supporters and exposed one of the flaws that is not only an unsavoury side of soccer but of society as a whole.

For those genuine fans, the start we have made to the season has generated a great deal of interest. Our results and performances so far have brought an unexpected increase in season ticket sales — a vote of confidence from our supporters.

There could be a few complaints about our performance at Hillsborough last week. Okay, we lost 3-1 and suffered our first defeat of the season — losing is something no footballer can come to terms with.

But it was a great game for the spectators with end to end football. The sort of display that is sure to bring the fans back.

We were caught sleeping when Sheffield Wednesday scored their first goal within seconds of the start but we came back into the game well and they got their second goal just at the time when we were running the show. As I say, it was not the result we were looking for, but if people get the impression from the scoreline that we were murdered — we were not.

There was an all-round commitment from the team and some very good football. That is all I can ask from the players tonight.

In welcoming Bob Stokoe and his Carlisle team, I would like to wish them a successful season along with ourselves in the Second Division. If we can produce the number of goals tonight that we did at Carlisle then there will be plenty for the fans to cheer.

COVER PIC: Tony Henry is congratulated by Mike Doyle and Steve Whitworth after first goal. Bolton v Newcastle United.

Welcome to BURNDEN PARK

CARLISLE DISAPPOINT IN LEAGUE CUP

By Tony Pullein

Carlisle United come to Burnden Park seeking League Cup progress tonight but there is no doubt that the Cumbrians' major objective this season will be to re-establish themselves in Division Two after taking runners-up spot in the Third Division last season.

They had spent five years as a Third division club, following relegation in 1977, and during that time went uncomfortably close to a return to Fourth Division football. Happily, they avoided that fate and their revival can be traced to the time Bob Stokoe agreed to return for his second spell as manager in September, 1980.

At that time the club was almost bottom of the Third Division with but one point from five games. Mr Stokoe managed to knock the team into shape, though they still managed to miss relegation by only one point at the end of that season.

Once he had sorted out the major problems, Mr Stokoe made several important signings, the most significant being the veteran striker "Pop" Robson who joined them from Sunderland as player-coach and who played such a significant role in last season's successful promotion campaign. Robson finished top scorer with 18 goals and it was a big disappointment when he fell into dispute with the club during the summer.

Robson felt he might have earned promotion to the team-manager's post but the club was not then ready to contemplate any change at that level. So, when Chelsea gave him the chance to join them purely as a player, he took all his expertise down to Stamford Bridge.

Mr Stokoe took the precaution of signing two new strikers during the summer. Both Malcolm Poskett (from Watford) and Alan Shoulder (Newcastle) have very good scoring records and are already off the mark for their new club. With Gordon Staniforth and Bob Lee — who both scored 15 goals last season — still available, it is hoped that Robson will not be missed.

Carlisle's other close-season signings included midfield men Brian Hornsby (Sheff Wed) and Bobby Mitchell, from Grimsby, plus goalkeeper Jon Rush, who impressed Mr Stokoe when he was the manager of Blackpool.

Carlisle's recent record in the League Cup has been very disappointing. They haven't progressed beyond the second round since 1975/76 and, since then, their only victory in an away leg was at Stockport (2-1) in 1976/77.

For the past two seasons they have been knocked out in round two after defeating Rochdale (3-1 on aggregate) in 1980/81 and Bury (5-4 aggregate) last season.

The club's long-term aim is to return to the First Division. They achieved this dream in 1974 but after a glorious start — they stood on top of the table with maximum points from three games — they found the pace too hot and they made a rapid return to Division Two.

That experience really rocked the club and, only two years later, they returned to the Third Division that had been their home for so many early years of their life.

Carlisle United were elected to the Third Division (North) in 1928 and finished eighth in their debut season. After that they trod a fairly uneventful path until the outbreak of war, the only black spot being 1934/35 when they had to apply for re-election after finishing bottom with only 23 points, nine behind the next club.

When the club became a founder member of Division Four in 1958 the directors, depressed at the prospect of life in the Fourth, contemplated applying for election to the Scottish League!

Though Berwick Rangers has set a precedent, the Scottish League refused even to consider a second English club — a decision that, as later events were to prove, was most fortunate.

Carlisle's first promotion was achieved under manager Ivor Powell in 1962.

Sadly, this success was shortlived. The following season Carlisle finished 23rd in Division Three and were knocked out of the F.A. Cup by non-League Gravesend.

Season 1963/64 was to mark the beginning of a triumphant new era. Though the Cumbrians were robbed of the Fourth Division championship on goal-average, they still gained promotion. This was followed by further promotion twelve months later.

In 1969/70 Carlisle smashed another club record by surviving to the semi-finals of the League Cup. But it was in 1973/74 that Carlisle achieved their most fabulous success — promotion to the First Division.

Now they are once again setting their sights upon that lofty target.

CARLISLE PEN-PICTURES

TREVOR SWINBURNE (Goalkeeper). Trevor spent seven years as a Sunderland professional but he was limited to only nine appearances in their League eleven. After a loan spell with Sheffield United, he joined Carlisle in 1977 and has been their first-choice 'keeper ever since.

JON RUSH (Goalkeeper). New-Zealand born Jon became a professional with Blackpool making his League debut at Charlton in October 1980. A few days later he played against Carlisle. Jon remained generally second choice at Bloomfield Road, though. He joined Carlisle this summer.

BOBBY PARKER (Defender). Bobby is the only survivor of the Carlisle side that played in the First Division in 1974/75. He had been signed from Coventry for £52,000 at the beginning of that season after completing 81 League appearances for the Sky Blues.

JACK ASHURST (Defender). Jack joined Carlisle from Blackpool for £50,000 in 1981. A player of long experience, he first played League football with Sunderland in 1972/73 and he made more than 150 first-team appearances for the Roker club before moving on to Blackpool for £130,000 in 1979. Jack scored one of Carlisle's goals against us in the first leg.

TONY LARKIN (Defender). Tony's first professional club was Wrexham but he didn't get a first-team chance with them so he moved to neighbouring Shrewsbury Town in 1978. He made well over 50 senior appearances for the Gay Meadow club and signed for Carlisle during the 1981 close-season.

Carlisle

DAVID RUSHBURY (Defender). David was signed from Swansea City for £40,000 shortly before the start of last season. He began his League career as a centre-back with West Bromwich Albion in 1974 and moved on to Sheffield Wednesday two years later. Swansea signed him for £60,000 in 1979. He is usually found the full-back position these days.

PAUL HAIGH (Midfield/Defender). Paul developed with Hull City, winning England Youth and under-21 caps whilst with the Tigers. He made more than 150 League appearances for Hull before moving to Carlisle for £100,000 two seasons ago.

KEITH HOUGHTON (Defender). Keith was a member of the Blyth Spartans side that reached the fifth round of the F.A. Cup in 1978. He gave up his job as a policeman to turn professional with Carlisle and was originally a midfielder when he made his League debut against Sheffield United in February 1980. He has now switched to a defensive role.

RUSSELL COUGHLIN (Midfield). Russell served his apprenticeship with Manchester City but didn't come into contention for a first team place at Maine Road. A £40,000 transfer took him to Blackburn in 1979 and it was at Ewood Park that he got his first taste of League soccer. He was transferred to Carlisle for £20,000 two seasons ago. Russell scored against us in the first leg at Brunton Park.

BOBBY MITCHELL (Midfield). Bobby entered League soccer with Sunderland in 1973/74 though his first team opportunities at Roker were limited. A move to Blackburn in 1976 saw him make a break-through but it was after signing for Grimsby in 1978 that he really established himself. He joined Carlisle this summer.

TOMMY CRAIG (Midfield). Tommy started with Aberdeen and joined Sheffield Wednesday for £100,000 in 1969. He moved on to Newcastle for £120,000 in 1975 and, whilst at St. James's Park, he won a Scottish cap. Aston Villa signed him for a then club record £250,000 in 1978 but he joined Swansea for £150,000 a year later. He moved on to Carlisle last season.

ALAN SHOULDER (Forward). Alan was another member of Blyth Spartan's famous Cup team of 1978 and he joined Newcastle for £20,000 the following season. In 1979/80 he was the Magpies' leading scorer with 21 goals. But he lost his place last season and moved on to Carlisle this summer.

BOB LEE (Forward). Bob began his career with Leicester and spent a short time on loan to Doncaster in 1974/75. After leading Leicester's scorers with 13 goals in 1975/76, he was snapped up by Sunderland for £200,000. He was their top scorer in his first season but later lost his touch and moved off to Bristol Rovers two seasons ago. Carlisle signed him during the 1981 close-season and last season he scored 13 goals for them.

GORDON STANIFORTH (Forward). Gordon was Carlisle's top marksman with 16 goals in 1980/81 and hit 13 last season. He started off with Hull City, making just seven League appearances for the Tigers. It was after joining York in 1976 that he began to establish himself and he was their top scorer in his last two seasons before transferring to Carlisle for £100,000 in 1980. Gordon hit one of Carlisle's three goals against us in the first meeting.

MALCOLM POSKETT (Forward). Malcolm was a £20,000 close-season signing from Watford. His first club was Middlesbrough but he played only one League game for them before drifting into non-League football with Whitby Town. Hartlepool gave him another chance in League soccer when they signed him in 1976 — for £25! He topped their scoring list in his first season and, when they sold him to Brighton in 1978, Hartlepool collected £60,000. A £120,000 transfer took him to Watford in 1980 and two seasons ago he was their leading scorer with 21 goals.

BRIAN HORNSBY (Midfield). Brian made 26 First Division appearances for Arsenal and was transferred to Shrewsbury in 1976. Two years later he signed for Sheffield Wednesday for £50,000 and he joined Carlisle this summer.

Tonights game with the Cumbrians is the first time we have been drawn together in the League Cup Competition. In fact our only cup tie meeting was in a 3rd round FA Cup tie at Burnden in January 1931 when the Wanderers won 1-0 with a goal from Blackmore. The Wanderers team contained many household names and will be well remembered by many of the older supporters.

Jones, Haworth (captain), Finny, Goslin, Seddon, Nuttall, Butler, McKay, Blackmore, Gibson and Cook.

Unfortunately Sunderland defeated them in the next round after a replay.

Our league meetings have all taken place more recently. Since season 1965-66 we have played each other on 18 occasions all at 2nd division level. Carlisle have the better record having won 10 to the Wanderers 4 games.

LEAGUE CUP HIGHLIGHTS

Tonights tie will be the Wanderers 63rd in the League Cup competition. Of these 22 have been won and 23 have been lost. 30 games have been played at Burnden, 32 on opponents grounds and one on a neutral ground. This came in 1976 against Fulham when after two 2-2 draws the Wanderers won 2-1 at St. Andrews Birmingham to eventually help them on their way to the semi-finals and their best showing in the competition.

The biggest victory came in the very first season of the competition in 1960-61 when a 6-2 victory over Grimsby Town was recorded in the 2nd round at Burnden, Nat Lofthouse getting a hat-trick.

The worst defeat came in season 1971-72. This was again at Burnden when Chelsea won 6-0 after a drawn game at Stamford Bridge. Bolton then in the 3rd division had already been giant-killers in defeating first division Huddersfield 2-0 at Leeds Road and Manchester City 3-0 at Burnden with a Garry Jones' hat-trick.

The 3-3 draw at Brunton Park a fortnight ago brought the Wanderers goals total in the competition to 98 with 104 conceded. Lets hope tonights result brings up the 'ton' and a win through to the next round when the remaining second division and all the first division sides are placed in to the hat along with the first round winners.

FLASHBACK

15 YEARS AGO — On September 6th, 1967 Millwall were the visitors to Burnden in a 2nd division fixture. Francis Lee scored Bolton's goal in a 1-1 draw before a crowd of 11,172. Eddie Hopkinson returned to the side after injury leaving Alex Smith to return to reserve football again!

The following Saturday the Wanderers travelled to Ipswich with a reshuffled defence. Arthur Marsh was relegated to substitute with Dave Hatton taking the right back berth. Centre half John Hulme was brought in for his first appearance of the season. A 1-1 draw was the scoreline with that man Lee again the scorer for the Wanderers!

On 13th September Bolton visited Liverpool in a League Cup 2nd round tie. The Wanderers created an upset by coming away with a 1-1 draw before a crowd of 45,957. Francis Lee scoring what was to be his last goal for the club before his move to Manchester City.

10 YEARS AGO — The Wanderers were involved in a League Cup 2nd round tie at Hillsborough, with Sheffield Wednesday on September 6th, 1972. Goals from Joicey and Eustace were enough to send Wednesday through to the next round and a tie at Wolves. Roy Greaves missed an early penalty and Don McAllister was booked for the second game in succession. Stuart Lee, who was to make an impact later in the season made his first appearance of the season as substitute for Ronnie Phillips.

The following Saturday Plymouth Argyle were the visitors to Burnden. The Wanderers won 2-0 with goals from John Byrom and a Garry Jones penalty. This victory left the Wanderers in 3rd position in the 3rd division table after six league games.

The crowd attendance of 5,515 was to be the lowest league attendance of the season.

5 YEARS AGO — On September 10th, 1977 Oldham Athletic were the visitors to Burnden in a second division fixture. A 28th minute goal from Neil Whatmore was enough to win the points. Whatmore fired home from close range after a cross from Willie Morgan had been headed on by Sam Allardyce.

Oldham came back strongly in the second half but the Wanderers defence held out. The attendance was 16,033.

Incidentally only two members of the Wanderers team that won this game are still with the Club, Peter Reid and Jim McDonagh. The substitute for this game was Steve Taylor who by the following month had joined Oldham for £40,000.

RESERVE REPORT

The reserves continued with their warm up matches for the coming season by playing their counterparts from Preston North End and Blackburn Rovers.

The game at Preston produced a 7-0 victory for the Wanderers with goals from Wayne Foster, Steve Thompson, Andy Hodgkinson, Neil Redfern and a double for Vernon Allatt. North Ends' misery was completed with an own goal.

Blackburn Rovers visited Bromwich Street on the 25th August and a 1-1 draw resulted. Former Rovers player Mike Graham getting the Wanderers goal.

SUPPORTERS ASSOCIATION NEWS

Don't forget tickets are still available for a social evening on 15th September in the Executive Suite. These are priced at £1.25 and can be obtained from the Souvenir Shop or the development office.

There will be a late bar and entertainment in the form of a disco and a comedian.

May we send belated congratulations to former Wanderer Alan Gowling who completed the Pony British Marathon in three hours twenty six minutes to become one of the few professional footballers to take on the course, although Manchester City's Kevin Bond and John Ryan did complete the Piccadilly Marathon during the summer.

Alan has now been signed up on a part time basis by Preston North End.

JUNIOR WHITES' FIRST MEETING

John McGovern met many of Wanderers' youngest fans when he was the centre of attention at the first of the new season's meetings of the Junior Whites Club.

John, accompanied by Ian Moores and Mike Bennett, chatted to the youngsters and answered a variety of questions on his career ranging from his early days at Hartlepool, through his association with success under Brian Clough at Derby and Nottingham Forest, before becoming player-manager here at Burnden Park.

More than 100 members attended the meeting — many new members being enrolled.

The next date for the Junior Whites diary is Monday, November 8th, when the kids can meet more of the players plus a special guest.

Liverpool's Graeme Souness, Alan Hansen and Kenny Dalglish hold the League Cup aloft after their Wembley victory over Spurs last March.

A Gold Top Start

The Milk Cup — formerly the Football League Cup — got off to a gold top start when the 1982/83 tournament was launched in the lavish surroundings of the Sportsman's Club in London, on Monday July 26th.

At this ceremony the draw for the First Round, which is arranged on a regional basis, was made. All the Third and Fourth Division sides plus the bottom ten clubs in the Second Division made up the number.

But as you would expect on this auspicious occasion there was no question of pulling teams out of a hat. The numbered cubes were drawn from a container shaped in the form of a milk bottle and the first side to emerge was Chester, relegated from the Third Division last season, who were paired with former FA Cup Winners Blackpool.

There were two former Football League Cup finalists represented in the 46 contestants, a reminder that the Football League Cup has been the stage for many a giant killing run. Swindon Town, who memorably defeated the mighty Arsenal in a gruelling contest at Wembley in March 1969, and Rochdale who reached the second final in 1962 when they lost over the two stages to Norwich City.

Swindon who now find themselves in the Fourth Division, were drawn against Bristol City who have suffered a similar fate. Rochdale, the little northern club who have never won anything since their election to the Football League in 1921 start their quest for glory again against Port Vale.

The full draw is:

Chester v Blackpool
Crewe v Tranmere Rovers

Walsall v Preston North End
Port Vale v Rochdale
Carlisle v Bolton
Wrexham v Shrewsbury
Bury v Burnley
Stockport County v Wigan
Halifax v Derby County
Sheffield United v Hull City
Chesterfield v Hartlepool
Scunthorpe v Grimsby Town
York City v Lincoln City
Darlington v Peterborough
Huddersfield v Doncaster
Bradford City v Mansfield
Swindon v Bristol City
Exeter v Newport County
Plymouth v AFC Bournemouth
Reading v Oxford United Bristol Rovers v Torquay United
Cardiff City v Hereford
Millwall v Northampton
Southend United v Fulham
Gillingham v Orient
Colchester v Aldershot
Crystal Palace v Portsmouth
Wimbledon v Brentford

The first legs of ties are to be played between Monday, August 30th and Wednesday, September 1st, and the second legs between Monday, September 13th and Wednesday, September 15th. The team drawn first in each pairing will be the home team in the first leg unless it is mutually agreed to play otherwise, with the Football League's permission. The draw has been made in four geographical regions.

If, in the first and second rounds, both teams are level on goals after 180 minutes, then an extra half hour shall be played. If the aggregate scores are still level at the end of extra time the tie shall be decided by goals scored away from home counting double. If the teams remain equal after this procedure the tie shall be decided by a penalty competition played in accordance with the Laws of the Game.

In the event of the scores being equal after 90 minutes in the Third, Fourth and Fifth round matches, the match shall be replayed on the ground of the visiting club. In the event of the scores being level at the end of 90 minutes in the replayed game an extra half hour shall be played, and if the match is still undecided, the venue for further replays shall alternate between the grounds of the competing clubs, unless mutually agreed.

In the semi-finals, if the aggregate score is level after the end of the second leg an extra half an hour shall be played, and if the scores shall still be level at the end of extra time the match shall be played on a neutral ground. If the score is still level at the end of 90 minutes, the winners shall be determined by a penalty competition played within the Laws of the Game.

If the score is still level at the end of 90 minutes in the final tie, an extra half an hour shall be played, and if the score is still level then the game will be replayed on a neutral ground. If the score is still level at the end of a replay an extra half an hour shall be played, and if then, the scores are still level, the outcome will be determined by a penalty competition.

* Matches may be played on the preceding Monday or Tuesday.

Two star strikers got the opportunity to gun down their former clubs when the draw for the First Round of the Milk Cup threw Sheffield United with Hull City and Brentford against Wimbledon.

Sheffield United's Keith Edwards was the leading goalscorer in the League last season when he notched 36 times to help the Blades clinch the Fourth Division Championship. Just what an achievement that was can be judged from the fact that it was the first time a player had scored that many goals in a League season since Dixie McNeill — now at Wrexham — blasted 35 for Hereford in the 1975-76 season.

But goalscoring seems to come easy to the 24 year old Edwards who started his career at Bramall Lane, before moving to Hull City in a £55,000 transfer because he felt his career was not developing at Sheffield.

The change certainly did him good and Keith was soon the toast of Humberside as he topped the Tigers goalscoring charts three seasons in succession. Suddenly the lad from Stockton was in demand.

He kicked off last season with Hull City and ironically opened his account with a goal against Sheffield United. A couple of games later and Keith was back in United's colours following a dramatic £90,000 deal.

The youngster is eager to redress the balance by scoring against Hull this season as he sets his sights on 20-25 goals for the season.

"Goalscoring is my business," he says, "I've always finished up as my club's top scorer wherever I have played and I am proud of that record.

"We must be favourites for promotion again this season and I want to play my part by finishing up as Sheffield United's top scorer again."

Another proven scorer with similar ideals is Brentford's new £40,000 signing Francis Joseph, who headed Wimbledon's score sheet last season. The former Hillingdon Borough striker also makes an early return to Fourth Division Wimbledon in this first round of the Milk Cup.

ITALY'S OPEN HOUSE

Are foreign footballers a boon or a blessing? One country that has never quite made up its mind is Italy, who ironically only relaxed its stringent control on imported players a few months before its unexpected World Cup triumph in Madrid.

Italian football had seemed strangled by a surfeit of foreign stars and for the best part of 15 years they banned all imports, even defying Common Market rules governing the freedom of labour between member states. Then in 1980 the rules were relaxed and clubs were allowed to employ one foreign star each.

There are arguments on both sides, all of them equally creditable. Those in favour of opening the doors to the best players in the world contend that to have the best can only improve the quality of the game. Certainly Spurs, the pioneers in England, found that the skills and technique of Ardiles and Villa rubbed off on their younger players and they can unhesitatingly claim that their two Argentinian stars not only improved the quality of their football but their gates as well. But those against insist that buying foreign players impairs the progress of home grown talent which will later be reflected in the national side and not only that but the money paid in transfer fee is then lost to the buying clubs game.

Of course there are those who would claim that England has suffered from this problem for over a century, the number of Scots, Welsh and Irish players there are in the League. Clearly you pay your money and you take your choice.

The Italians went through a very bad phase internationally before they brought down the shutters, when all the top clubs employed foreign stars in the key positions of attack and midfield and they found that Italian players were just not being developed. In a way their success over West Germany last June could probably be attributed to the ban on imports and now the irony is complete as the Italian's basking in their success settle down for what they anticipate will be a boom season as far as gates are concerned.

But Italian fans will not only be able to applaud their own World Cup heroes, but a host of international stars from all over the world, who have been signing lucrative contracts like expense accounts since the Italian League agreed to increase the quota of foreign players per club from one to two.

Juventus one of the wealthiest, proved the point by swooping on French Captain Michel Platini and Poland's star player Zbigniew Boniek, and the team which won the Championship last season can also boast the goalscoring prowess of Paola Rossi. It is little wonder then that their coach says he can not sleep nights for thinking about the cups they should win.

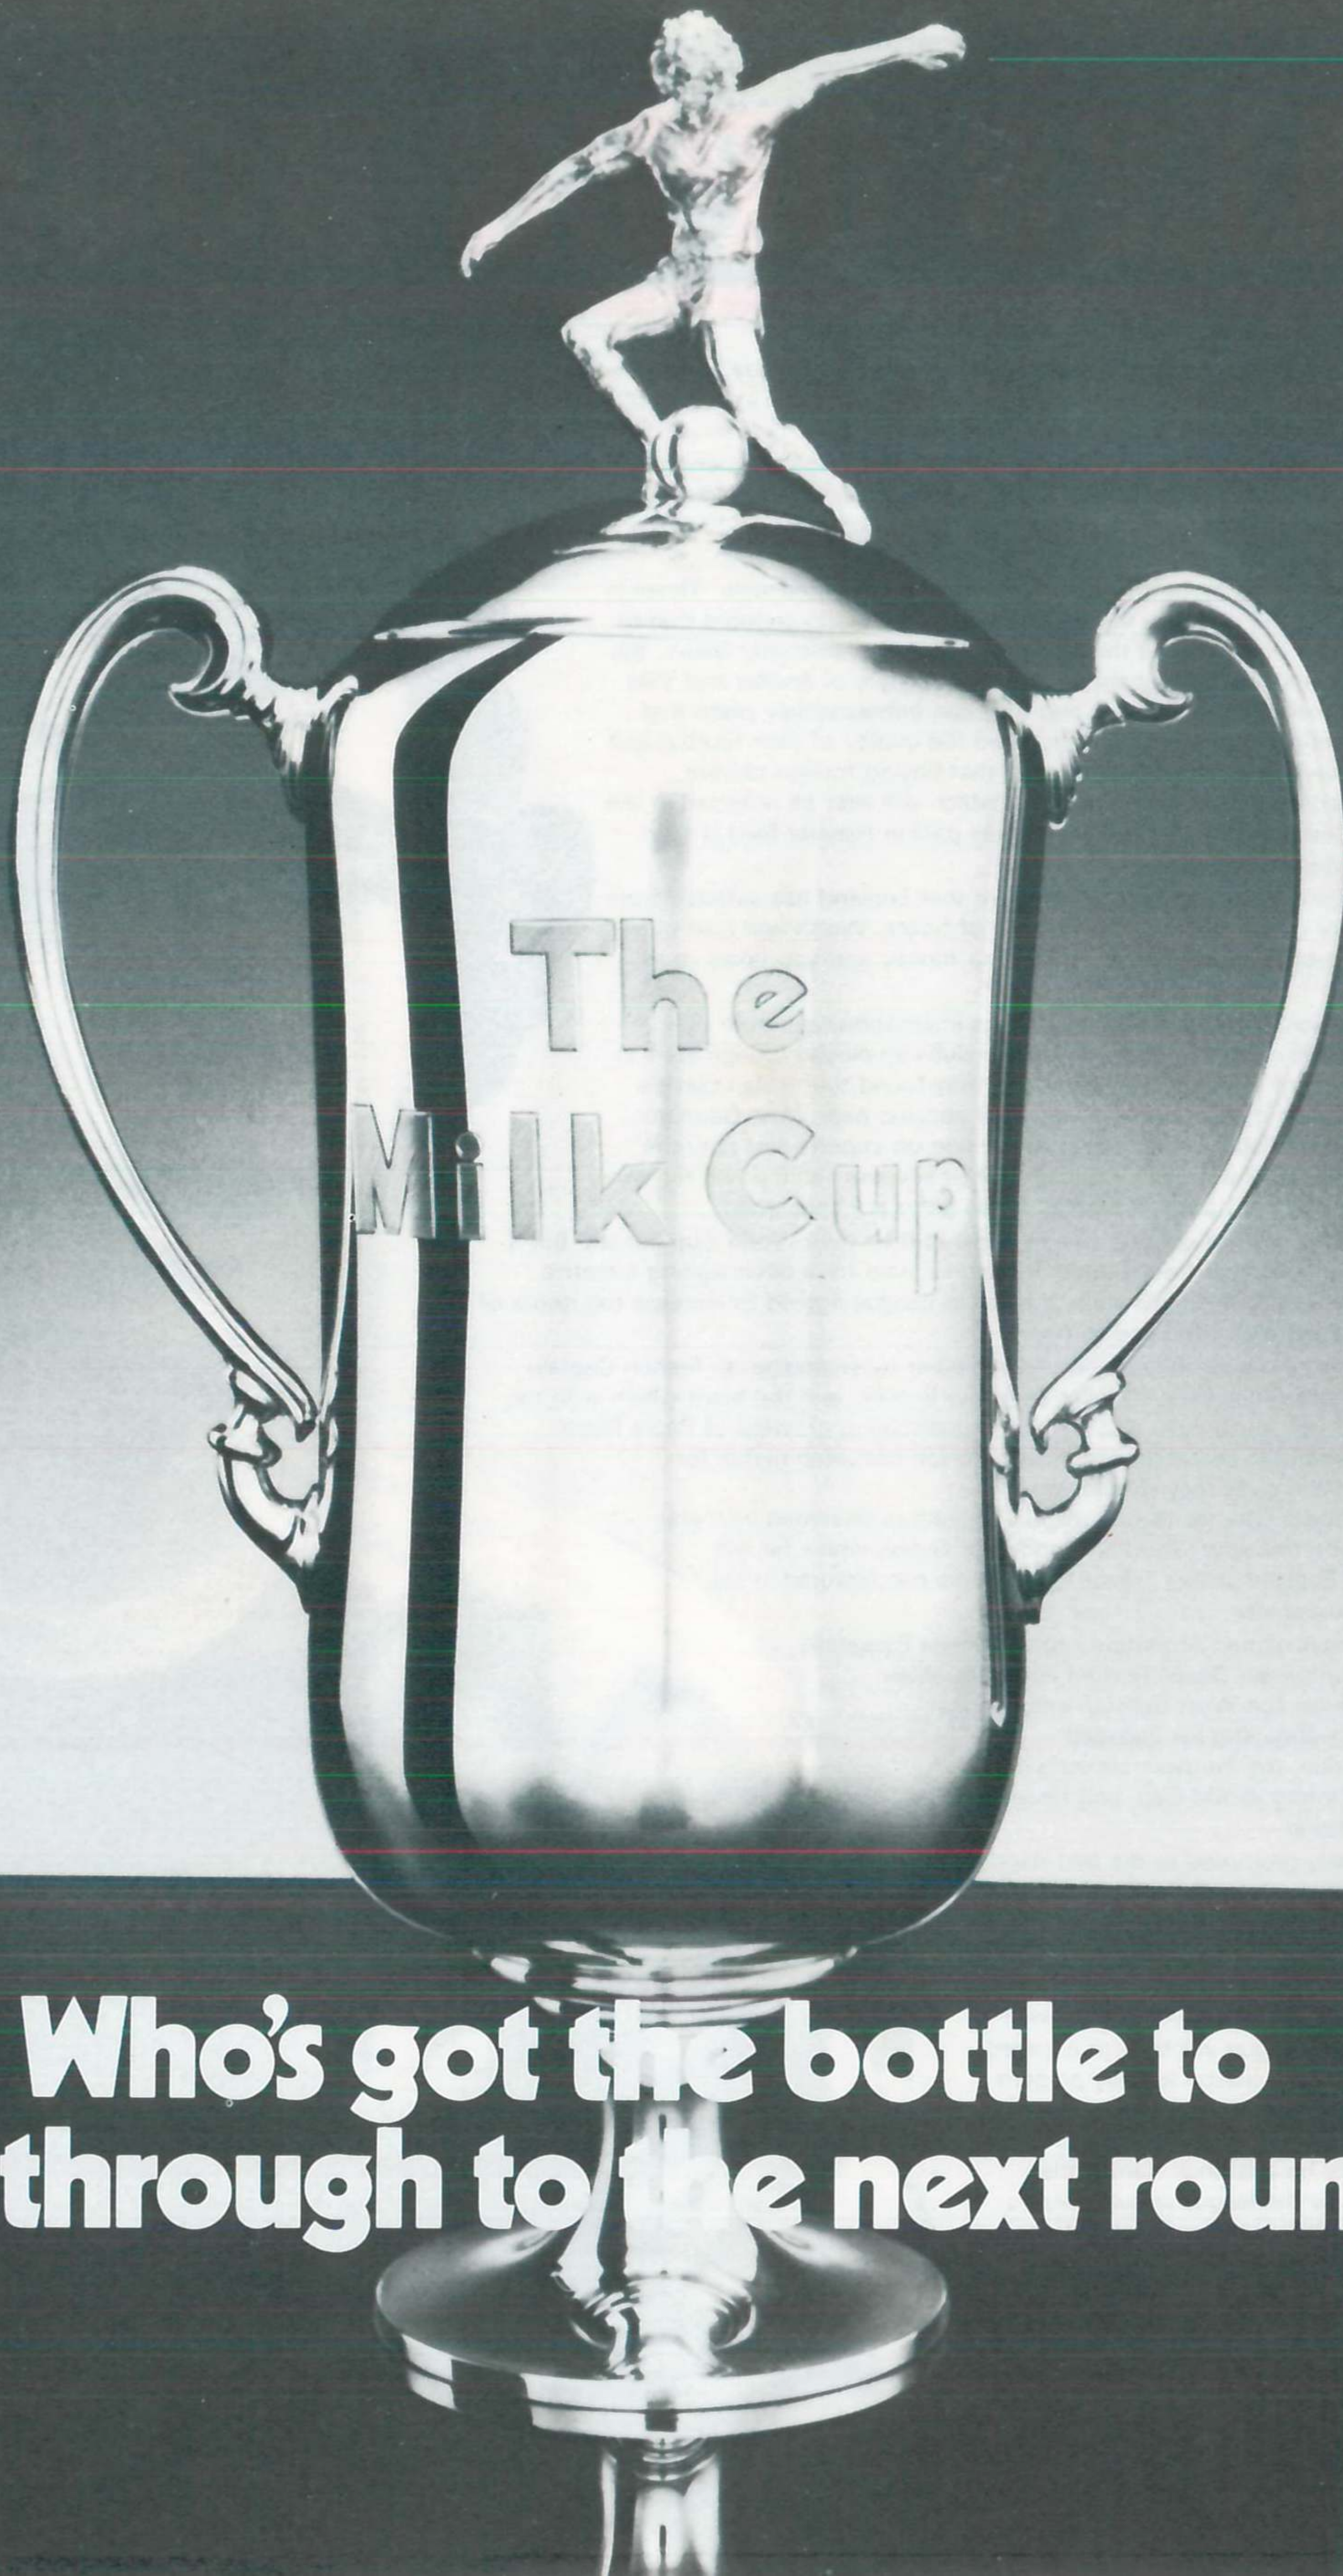

In order to make way for this double bill, Juventus discarded Irish star Liam Brady who has now joined Sampdoria of Genoa where he will team up with England striker Trevor Francis who has featured in his third £1 million transfer.

Fiorentina have signed Argentine captain Daniel Passarella to join his countryman Daniel Berti and Inter Milan have Hansi Muller the West German international, while Cagliari's shopping list included Julio Cesar Uribe, the Peruvian striker who had a disappointing World Cup, and Uruguayan Vladamir Victorino.

Verona, newly promoted to the first division have spent their cash on Poland's Wladyslaw Zmuda and Jose Dirceu of Brazil. Udinese will parade Ivica Surjak the talented Yugoslav, Napoli Ramon Diaz of Argentina and Roma the Austrian midfield general Herbert Prohaska.

So the Italian League will be a true united nations this coming season as they prepare to reap the financial harvest won for them by the achievements of the national team. It would certainly be a strange slant if the newest move by the league should help to undermine the Italian national side which has brought them their bonanza.

FOOTBALL— A PRECARIOUS GAME

By Colin Benson

He is handsome, strong and athletic. To many he is an idol and as such they expect a lot from him because Dave Donaldson is a professional footballer.

No doubt countless fans reading this column would eagerly trade places with him given half the chance, and yet there is far more to being a full-time footballer than the glamorous public image portrays.

Just like many a young father with a mortgage and growing family to support, David drives to work at Cambridge United each morning from his well appointed house in St. Ives, but unlike Mr. Average, his is an occupation of uncertainty.

Like his team mates he is only too aware that a stroke of bad luck, a serious injury or even loss of form could deprive him of his very livelihood. . . and that is a burden which lingers permanently in the sub-conscious.

"It will always be a worry to me because I have not got another trade to fall back on," he admits candidly. "If I left football, I don't know what I would do. When I was a kid I used to think to myself that I must try and get into the game and earn as much money as possible, and then sort out the rest of my life afterwards. Those same feelings are still with me today.

OBSESSED

"While you are young and fit and enjoying life you tend to push any thoughts of doubt to the back of your mind, especially when you are playing consistently, because you have a job. . . How long the job will last I don't know and obviously when I get nearer the age of 30 I will have to start thinking seriously about the future.

"At the moment I am still young and feel that I have a lot of football left in me. . . but the concern is always going to worry me although it is a hurdle I shall not meet until I come to it."

For a young man who has known nothing but a footballing environment the whole of his working life, it is difficult to contemplate a world without the game. David was born in Islington north London. His father is a staunch Arsenal supporter and it was not long before he was taking young David to Highbury to watch the 'Gunners'.

"I just picked the game up from there really," he reflects nonchalantly. "That is where my interest in football was fostered. My father gave me as much encouragement as he could and whenever he had the time he would come out and kick a ball about with me. Gradually I became occupied with the sport and every spare moment was filled by football. . . I would even go out into the kitchen and batter a ball around.

SACRIFICES

Young Dave made the school team but says; "at that time it was just for fun. Neither my father, who came to watch every game, or I, had any set notions of playing the game professionally, things just happened.

"Firstly I was seen by someone who recommended me to Arsenal and arranged for me to have a trial at Highbury. It was terrific, I tell you when I got there the feeling was immediate. . . there was no where else I wanted to go.

"They accepted me and from then on I was training twice a week at Arsenal under some of the best coaches in the world. People like Don Howe and Steve Burtenshaw were magic and Don, well he is out on his own, absolutely superb. Of course having been a former England fullback he was particularly aware of my problems but the outstanding quality he has is patience. Don is no quitter and he will stay with you and go over it again and again until you get it right."

The influence of Howe certainly brought reward for Dave was then recognised by the ESFA and played eleven times for the England Schoolboys team before leaving school and signing for the 'Gunners'.

Since then he has gone on to make a career for himself and there are not many former Schoolboy internationals who manage that. "I think one of the reasons for that is down to the boys themselves," suggests Dave. "Too many think that once they have made the grade it is easy from then on. They do not conduct their life properly. If you want to make it in this game then you must first realise that you are a professional athlete and that as such certain sacrifices have to be made. It is essential to look after your body and to me it was very important because I knew that if I chose this profession I had to make it work."

NO PROBLEMS

Sound advice indeed to any young fan contemplating following in David's footsteps. Certainly as far as young Donaldson was concerned it proved worthwhile as England Youth caps against Spain (twice) and Holland (twice) emphasised. Alas the door to Arsenal's first team seemed a long time opening and in 1973 he agreed to join Millwall.

After sterling service with the Lions he joined Cambridge United in January 1980 for a £40,000 fee and has proved to be a sound investment.

"I certainly have no regrets at leaving the big city" says Donaldson, "because being with a club like Cambridge means that I can provide a better environment for my wife Yana and the boys David (2½) and Craig (15 months) to live in and that is important to me as a husband and father. There are some lovely people living by us and they are always on hand if needed so we are quite fortunate. . . I don't think we could have picked a better place to live."
